2) Mr Doray chetty is already a Gazetted officer and if he takes the place of Mr Putta Raj Urs. another officer would still be necessary. Mr M.A. Srinivasan has cabled from London that he will be returning shortly. When he returns, he may take the place of Mr Putta Raj Urs.

3) Mr Dorary chetty is working as Test Audit officer at Madras & it would be inadvisable to disturb him for temporary periods. If he is to be taken back from Test Audit work, such arrangement should be of a permanent nature and Mr Putta Raj Urs's place will have to be filled up by a Civil Service officer.

93) I have seen officially on Monday P. on the subject as he would be leaving a good many Sinhalese there, and the obstacle coming in the way of their promotion if they did not officially as no problem. Can Mr C.J. suggest a solution? Perhaps it would be easy to put an exec. officer - the most suitable person in the financial or Accts Dept. He seems to have a fancy for the former. Let him know that if it can be arranged.

94) As regards Sinhalese, I only like him to work in the executive line for some time. It is a talented officer, & he offers ample scope for making himself really useful to the State & for improving himself &c. But if he is not possible just now for reasons stated by the F.S.
I make no pass my veto.
I am in agreement with the Minister as regards Dorai Chetty. He deserves the promotion & I hope it will be done soon.

Decision in Council 12/2/30

16) Mr Patteraj's case need not be immediately absorbed in the ~~general~~ cadre of judicial officers even if his services are transferred to the judicial Dept. The question of selection seniority would not arise until his turn came for promotion as a Subordinate Judge. In the meantime there will be ample opportunity to test his aptitude and capacity for judicial work. This may be explained in a letter to the Chief Judge and his proposals to have Mr Patteraj's case to the Jud Dept at an early date, may be invited.

17) 2 As regards Mr M. A. Srinivasan it was agreed that he might go back to the Dept.
